Automobile owners who drive their machines every day in the year, naturally are very anxious for the 50 million bond issue. On a car costing $25 per annum their daily tax would be less than 7c. On the other hand the auto owner who has opportunity to use his car 100 times a year, who paid the same tax would pay 25c a trip tax. There are lots of people who hardly make 50 trips a year, and hence their tax would be 50c a trip. Equalized, isn't it?

The Hamilton County Herald is once more a visitor on our desks. We enjoy reading it, as it is very candid in its statements. Will Shepherd is now editor, and is not a whit more mincing in his editorials than the late editor of the Herald, W. B. Cleaver. He has passed to his reward, and there is no doubt that brave and honest-minded editors get rewarded sometime.

If our road costs $10,000 a mile, 50 mile average in each of the counties would mean 48 million dollars of the 50 million bond issue. It would take a 50 mile stretch to build only one road in Marion. The Dixie Highway stretches 50 miles. Marion would cost twice that amount alone. Better make that bond issue 100 millions.

Villaged or alive, remember that the Kaiser, also, was to be captured. So far he is immune, and just as soon as government is restored in Germany is gone back there to raise more cannon and planes, but little fulfillment of the order of the day."

Remember the Wayne county concrete roads. How they broke up as soon as Jack Frost got to work at them. There are concrete roads in Tennessee, but they are as rough as cobbles, and they tell us they are permanent.

First it was concrete road, then it was paved road, now it is permanent road. Wonder what kind of road it will be when the $50,000,000 is spent? Hope it is like the samples for recent bond issues in this county.

Three counties of the state have rejected the 50 million dollar bond issue. Wonder which they are. Chattanooga and Knoxville, Dixie Highway centres, naturally have accepted it.

Will some one tell us the approximate cost of a concrete road, paved, road or permanent road? So far we have not been able to find out.

Why you should use Cardui the woman's tonic, for your troubles, have been shown in thousands of letters from actual users of this medicine, who speak from personal experience. If the results obtained by other women for 50 many years have been so uniformly good, why not give Cardui a trial?

Volunteer's Lament

How He Would Shovel Coal Down Below

Talk about your Ringling's circus, and your boxing kangaroo, We're all that and more and don't know just what to do, Since we volunteered with Uncle Sam Our Country 'tis of Thee" To come and whip old Kaiser Bill we crossed the sub lined sea. Some of the first ones over, we took after the Hun, You know 'twas only a little while we had him on the run. Over muddy roads, thru shellfire, we worked both night and day. Saw comrades die, like heroes game, well I should say. But listen gentle people, listen to our woes, From Chateau Thierry to the Meuse always on our toes. Some days our hearts were not much but still we kept at work, Straight nights and days no sleep at all but still we never shirked. For seven long months it was like that, we stood to it to the man. And the more shells burst round us the more 6 inches we did ram. But now the war is over, our hearts for home do pine, But do they send us over there; oh no, just up here on the Rhine. We're over here just fourteen months and passes have been bad. From four to eight hours at the best is all we've ever had, Far from a joke, far from a rest, the truth is too d—m bad. Now the worst remains for us to face and still us to the quick, Home first with the National Army! still we are not allowed to kick. Leaving our mothers, homes and sweethearts for liberty we'd fall. Then send home the National army, first, do we like it? no not at all. Yes, send home the National Army, let the volunteers stay in France. Will it be with St. Peter, well we have a dying chance? Will he turn us from the pearly gate with the words "No place here? This is for the National Army and h—l for the volunteer." Even at that we can stand it, even if the door seems shut in our face, March right down to old Satan, step right into our place, Not so much as the bat of an eyelid, not so much as shedding of tear, But cheerfully grab a shovel, that's the nerve of a volunteer.
